STOP LOOK, LISTEN

STOP LOOK LISTEN YOUTH ARTS 2011 AT THE GRAINSTORE
dlr's Youth Arts Facility. Booking is not essential. However, we suggest arriving early for workshops and events to avoid disappointment.

STOP LOOK LISTEN AN CATHAOIRLEACH, CLLR. JOHN BAILEY

It gives me great pleasure to introduce STOP LOOK LISTEN Youth Arts 2011, a focus on creative work by young people all over the county.

STOP LOOK LISTEN takes place at the Grainstore, dlr's Youth Arts Facility, on Dublin South FM and in Dundrum-Rathdown Youth Centres. The Grainstore continues to be an important local amenity and I am delighted to see Canvas' continuing hard work and energy coming together in an exciting 10 day programme.

Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council believes in the value of the arts. Through dlr's Arts Office we support the development of youth arts and couple our expertise with partner agencies, organisations and communities. We believe in offering quality arts programmes that place young people at the core.

On behalf of Dun Laoghaire Rathdown County Council I would like to thank the Arts Council, the Department of Children and Youth Affairs, FAS, the National Youth Council of Ireland, the local youth services, the local community and especially Canvas and all the young people who ensure that the Grainstore is a vibrant home for youth arts.

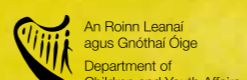

Canvas were directly involved in planning STOP LOOK LISTEN and many of the projects that you will see and hear over the 10 days. STOP LOOK LISTEN reflects the creative activities young people are involved in all over the county and is a celebration of all this activity. We hope you can join us and you are more than welcome to get involved!

GREETINGS FROM CANVAS

We are Canvas, the Youth Arts Committee at the Grainstore, dlr's Youth Arts Facility. We got together in August 2009. We have had a great time organising gigs, recording bands, making artwork and we want to share this experience with everyone. The Grainstore is for all young people and the workshops, gigs and opportunities are open to young people from all over Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County.

There is nowhere else like the Grainstore, what really makes it unique is that it is a place where any young person can arrive, get involved and immediately feel like they belong. Many of us came here because we were interested in meeting new people who share similar interests. This is a place where you can express yourself creatively.

We hope you find something of interest and look forward to seeing you during STOP LOOK LISTEN. We would like to see lots of new faces in the Grainstore and we are always open to new ideas!
