Festival Of World Cultures Special

E:Bulletin, Issue 7

1st August 2008

Welcome to the Festival of World Cultures 2008!

Fáilte go dtí Féile Chultúir na Cruinne 2008!

The Councillors of Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council, An Cathaoirleach Cllr. Tom Joyce and County Manager Owen Keegan welcome you to Dún Laoghaire for the 8th annual Festival of World Cultures.

A gigantic feast of arts and culture!

Dún Laoghaire is set once again for a spectacular global carnival weekend, which will see 800 musicians and artists, plus another 1,000 participants and volunteers descend on the seaside town to take part in 150 live gigs, performances and events throughout the town.

This year's programme offers a cultural cavalcade of music and arts, with a stellar line-up of headline musical acts including the infectious rhythms of Tiken Jah Fakoly, the ethereal Sa Dinding, the legendary Éthiopiennes and the exquisite Yungchen Lhamo. There will also be a dazzling seafront Parade, Wagon Circle frolics at Port Whoopee!, a death-defying 3D pavement art exhibition, Axis Mundi projection installation, all day events in the Kingston Garden, including late night jazz sessions, a Poetry Slam, International Storytelling and a Japanese Tea House hosted by two genuine Geisha from Kyoto.

In addition the ever popular Global Village presents a textile showcase and our Dún Laoghaire Mela, celebrating South Asian arts, features a dramatic Kathakali play. This year Deán Nós/Bris Nós takes place throughout the Kingston Hotel with unique Irish and international collaborations including Kíla's Rossa Ó Snodaigh with Morocco's Hassan Erraji at the Festival Club. The vibey new Festival Café offers a diverse range of gourmet food traders, a Purty Kitchen Festival Café Bar and bouncy summer tunes from the Mr Whippy Soundsystem.

Wexford Arts Centre Seeks Curator

Contact Catherine Bowe, Visual Arts Manager Wexford Arts Centre at: Wexford Arts Centre, Cornmarket, Wexford. T: 053 91 23764 E: catherine@wexfordartscentre.ie.

Wexford Arts Centre (WAC) in partnership with Stephen Carr Architects seek to appoint a suitable qualified person to curate an exhibition exploring the theme of how architecture can influence and change lives. The exhibition should seek to create an awareness of the influence of architecture on day-to-day life and aim to stimulate thought and debate about architecture, raising awareness and understanding of the built environment both for itself and how it relates to the natural environment.

The exhibition will be held from 27 July to 22 August 2009. Interested parties are asked to submit a proposal including an outline of the exhibition content, timeline, budget and fee requirements, and CV.

Deadline for applications: 5.00pm Tuesday 19 August 2008.

Wexford Arts Centre Seeks Intern & Technician

Contact: Visual arts Manager at: Wexford Arts Centre, Cornmarket, Wexford or E: catherine@wexfordartscentre.ie www.wexfordartscentre.ie

WAC currently seeks an intern to assist with the administration and coordination of its Visual Arts Exhibition & Education Programme. The intern will work closely with the Visual Arts Manager. Key responsibilities will include administrative and design work, as well as assisting with the promotion and installation of exhibitions and educational programmes. In addition to the experience gained during the internship period, WAC will consider paying a small monthly stipend plus travel expenses during the internship. Interns must have knowledge of contemporary visual arts, and be competent in software such as MS Word, Excel, and Adobe Photoshop. The internship is for a three-month period from October 2008 to January 2009 on a three-day flexible working week.

WAC also seeks a technician to assist with the installation of its visual arts exhibitions. The technician will work closely with the Visual Arts Manager and their key responsibility will be to provide technical support during installation and dismantling of exhibitions. Technicians will be paid an hourly rate and work flexible hours in accordance with the exhibition schedule.
