

Article 9 – Ventilation

- All habitable rooms must have adequate ventilation, maintained in good repair and working order. Kitchens and bathrooms must be provided with adequate ventilation for the removal of water vapour to the external air.
- In each bathroom/wc there must be a mechanical extractin vent unobstructed or passive stack vent with humidity control, in working order.