

NOTE: As the Register was only established on January 1st 2017, the Register is not presently populated with any vacant sites. Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council is presently engaging in a detailed assessment of all potential vacant sites in the County. This assessment will involve correspondence with the relevant landowners at various stages throughout the review process.