Background & Introduction

The legislative framework for the establishment of Joint Policing Committees is set out in Section 36 of An Garda Síochána Act 2005. Section 36(2) of the Act states that 'The JPC's function is to serve as a forum for consultations, discussions and recommendations on matters affecting the policing of the Local Authority administrative area and in particular to –

A: Keep under review the levels and patterns crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour in that area (including the patterns and levels of misuse of alcohol and drugs), and the factors underlying and contributing to the levels of crime, disorder and anti - social behaviour in the area.*

B: Advise the local authority concerned and the Garda Síochána on how they might best perform their functions having regard to the need to do everything feasible to improve the safety and quality of life and to prevent crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour within the area,*

C: Arrange and host public meetings concerning matters affecting the policing of the local authority's administrative area,*

D: Establish, in consultation with the local Garda Superintendents, as the committee considers necessary within specific neighbourhoods of the area, local policing fora to discuss and make recommendations to the committee concerning matters that it is to keep under review under paragraph (a) or on which it is to advise under paragraph (b), in so far as those matters affect their neighbourhoods,*

E: Co-ordinate the activities of local policing fora established under paragraph (d) or otherwise.*

A JPC was formed in Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown in April 2009 following the issuing of guidelines jointly by the Minister for Justice Equity & Law Reform and the Minister for the Environment, Heritage & Local Government in 2008. The Department of Justice and Equality, following a review of the operation of JPC's, issued revised guidelines governing the operation of the Joint Policing Committees in August 2014. Further guidelines were published by the Policing Authority in 2022 and they replace all previous guidelines which are now withdrawn.

Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown JPC membership

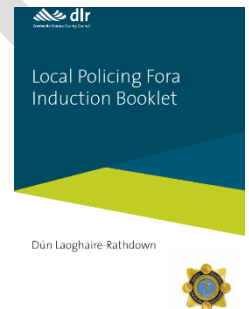

The dlr JPC consists of:

- 15 elected members
- 5 Oireachtas members
- 2 Local Authority Officials

- Ongoing support in the implementation of the DLR Age Friendly Strategy
- JPC was addressed by Commissioner Harris at the February 2020 meeting.

- The plan was extended in 2022 and 2023 and annual work plans were put in place for each year.

Local Policing Fora

Section 36 of the Garda Síochána Act 2005 provides the legislative framework for the setting up of a Local Policing Forum.

LPF provides a mechanism through which the community, the Gardai, the local authority (and public representatives, other statutory agencies and other stakeholders as required) come together in a structured way to identify issues related to:

- Policing in your area
- Anti-social behaviour
- Estate Management

There are 4 Local Policing Fora operating in the Dún Laoghaire - Rathdown area:

- Ballybrack/Loughlinstown/Shankill
- Central Dun Laoghaire
- Dundrum/Stillorgan
- Sandyford/Stepaside

These Local Policing Fora can discuss and make recommendations to the JPC concerning crime and anti-social behaviour and those matters that impact on the ability of those living and working in the area to feel safe and to be safe

Operation of the Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown Joint Policing Committee

While the Garda and DLRCC partnership is central to the JPC it is essential that there is a collective approach to assigning and accepting responsibility for the effective operation of the JPC and the implementation of the strategy.

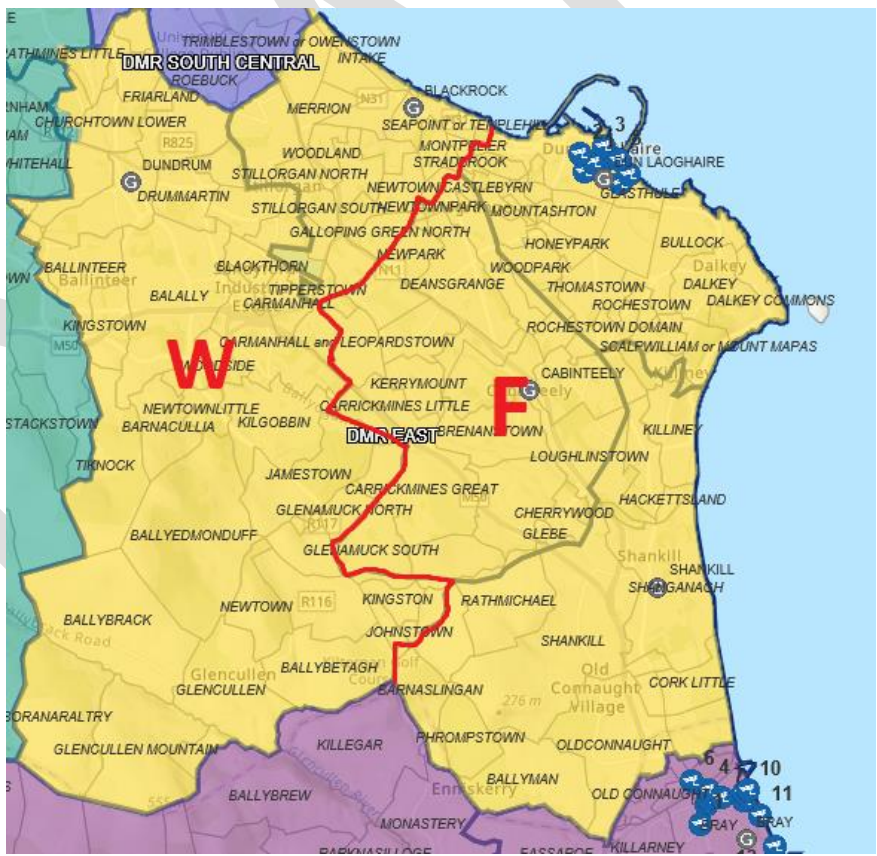

- The JPC presents an opportunity for consultation and an exchange of views, but ultimately it must find ways to coordinate its resources and prioritise actions that deliver solutions for the community.
- A JPC is focused on improving the safety and quality of life within an area so that it can be a safe community in which to live and work. JPC members should indicate what they will contribute to its work. All stakeholders have a role to play.
- All members should promote the work, achievements and success of the JPC through all channels of communication.

- The current guidelines state that this JPC should be strategic. It should not be a forum for addressing matters of detail. It should set priorities and be action orientated.
- Each JPC must prepare a multi-year strategic plan. The Dún Laoghaire Rathdown JPC inaugural plan covered the period 2016-2021 and this new plan will cover the period 2023-2028.

Garda Division covered by the Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown Joint Policing Committee

The area covered by the DLR Joint Policing Committee overlaps almost exactly with the Dublin Metropolitan Region East (DMR East) Division. Chief Superintendent Matthew Nyland is responsible for the Division. There are two Districts in this Division: Superintendent Fergal Harrington covers the Dún Laoghaire District and Superintendent Gordon Woulfe covers the Blackrock District. Superintendent Brian O’ Keeffe has responsibility for the Detective Units in the Division.

There are three Garda stations in the Dún Laoghaire District ‘F’: Cabinteely, Dún Laoghaire, and Shankill, and there are also three Garda stations in the Blackrock District ‘W’: Blackrock, Dundrum and Stepside.

At the extremities of the Division there are areas which are covered by the DLR Joint Policing Committee which fall into other Divisions i.e. to the west of the Division, Marlay Park is in the DMR South and to the north of the Division, the Woodbine/Boosterstown areas are in the DMR South Central Division.

Setting objectives for the multi-year Strategic plan

The current guidelines state that each JPC must make a multi-year strategic plan which links with other appropriate plans and strategies.

This Strategic Plan takes cognisance of the following documents:

- Draft DMR East Garda Policing Plan 2023
- The Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown Local Economic and Community Plan
- An Garda Síochána Policing Plan 2022
- An Garda Síochána Strategy Statement 2022-2024

In the development of this strategic plan, the following 4 themes were identified as the priorities for the next 6 six years: Crime Prevention, Safer communities, Victims and the Vulnerable and Community Engagement. High Level objectives and actions were identified under each of the themes and each action has been assigned a lead agency.

The 4 high level objectives are set out below:

- 1. Supporting and promoting Crime Prevention in DLR
- 2. Enhancing safer communities in DLR
- 3. Supporting Victims and the Vulnerable
- 4. Facilitating Community Engagement and Collaboration on Safety Issues

The plan outlines how, through the work of the Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown Joint Policing Committee, both partners, Dún Laoghaire Rathdown County Council and the Garda Síochána, along with members have the opportunity to contribute to the improved safety and quality of life in the community.

Implementation and Review of the Strategy

This strategy will be achieved across 6 years through implementing annual workplans. Each annual plan will be developed with the JPC members and will contain the priorities to be achieved during that year that will contribute to the achievement of the strategic outcomes set out in this document and drive the strategy forward.
