Application for Extension of Duration of Permission

OFFICE USE ONLY Reference Number: _____

In accordance with Section 42 of the Planning and Development Act, 2000 as amended by Section 28 of the Planning and Development Act, 2010, and Regulations made thereunder, a Planning Authority shall extend a permission as appropriate provided that the application is made in accordance with regulations made under the Act and the Authority is satisfied in relation to the permission that:-

To extend the appropriate period:

1. The development to which such permission relates commenced before the expiration of the appropriate period sought to be extended, and
2. Substantial works were carried out pursuant to such permission during such period.
3. The development will be completed within a reasonable time.

OR

4. There were considerations of a commercial economic or technical nature beyond the control of the applicant, which substantially militated against the commencement of development or the carrying out of substantial works pursuant to the planning permission.

there have been no significant changes in the development objectives in the Development Plan or in regional development objectives in the regional planning guidelines for the area of the Planning Authority since the date of permission such that the development would no longer be consistent with the proper planning and sustainable development of the area.

that the development would not be inconsistent with the proper planning and sustainable development of the area having regard to any guidelines issued by the Minister under Section 28, notwithstanding that they were so issued after the date of the grant of permission in relation to which an application is made under this section, where the development has not commenced, that an environmental impact assessment, or an appropriate assessment, or both of those assessments, if required was or were carried out before the permission was granted.

AND

Important Note:

In all cases, an application to EXTEND the appropriate period must be made not earlier than 1 year before the expiration of the appropriate period.
