

AIE 016-2021 Information

- Pollution incidents; Environmental pollution (e.g. illegal waste operations, pollution of watercourses)
Water Pollution Control Section has no record of pollution of water courses in the area indicated by a red line on the drawing.
- Contaminated land; Water Pollution Control Section has no records of water pollution caused by contaminated land in the area indicated by the red line on the drawing
- IPC consents; We can advise you that the EPA deals with these.
- Air and noise monitoring; Environment section have no records
- Relevant complaints; Typically, nuisances, air or noise pollution related (if not details above).
Water Pollution Control Section has no record complaints in the area indicated by a red line on the drawing.
- Detail on water quality of water courses in the area;
There are no open water courses in the area indicated by a red line on the drawing.
- Any discharge or abstraction consents to ground or surface waters
- Water Pollution Control Section has no records of abstraction consents from or discharges to ground or surface waters in the area indicated by a red line on the drawing.
- Groundwater and hydrogeology in the area of interest within a 1km radius of the site; and Private Wells in 1.5km vicinity
Water Pollution Control Section does not keep records of groundwater or hydrogeology within a 1km radius of the site indicated on the drawing.