Pop-Up Dance workshops & performances

As part of Dance Ireland's Pop Up Dance Project, Dublin Youth Dance Company will host workshops and perform a new work created by the dancers and guided by Anderson Souza of Unanimous. These dance workshops will emphasise the joy of movement and rhythm, along with the celebration of dancing together. DYDC will perform at 12.30pm and 2.00pm.

There are 3 workshops:

10.30am - 11.00am (ages 4-8yrs)

1.00pm - 1.35pm (ages 9-12yrs)

2.30pm - 3.10pm (ages 13yrs+)

These workshops are free but places are limited so booking is essential via eventbrite.

Harry Potter Coding workshop

Join Dr Jake Rowan Byrne in the Lexlcon Lab and make magic with a wave, a twist and a twirl using the Harry Potter Kano coding kit! Build a wand that responds to your movements, learn to code a variety of challenges and games, wave your wand and see instant effects on screen - make feathers fly, goblets multiply, fire flow, pumpkins grow and more!

2.00pm - 4.30pm (ages 8-12yrs)

This workshop is free but spaces are limited, so booking is essential via eventbrite.

Circus Skills workshops

Join the Street Theatre Ireland team for these workshops where you will get to practise a variety of basic circus skills, including juggling!

There will also be magic shows from Street Theatre Ireland at:

12.00pm, 1.30pm & 3.00pm

No booking required.

Botanical Art workshops

Drawing is about paying attention and really looking at what's around you. Join visual artist Jacinta Hughes where, using a viewfinder as a guide, you will create a drawing based on the plants around you, paint your piece using watercolours, and take home your creation.

There are 2 workshops:

11.00am - 12.00pm

1.00pm - 2.00pm

Suitable for all ages. No pre-booking required, just register on the day. Spaces are limited.

Street Art workshops

Unleash your inner street artist and join Street Art Ink for this spray painting workshop! Artist Juliette Viode will work with up to 30 children per workshop using spray skills to create a piece of artwork on a canvas of hard card which you can take away with you at the end.

There are 2 workshops:

11.00am-1.00pm (ages 7yrs+)

2.00pm - 4.00pm (ages 7yrs+)

These workshops are free but places are limited so booking is essential via eventbrite.

Small Wonders

Small Wonders is a new child-centred multisensory creative experience for children aged 1-2 and their caregivers. Artists Niamh Lawlor, George Higgs, Sarah Fitzgibbon and Orla Kelly have been collaborating with children from the First Friends Service, supported by dlr CYSPC and Barnardos, to inspire the children's poetic curiosity and wonderings through music, puppetry and immersive space.

Join them in the Lexlcon Project Room on 11 June for 2 creative experiences for your little one:

11.30am - 12.00pm

1.00pm - 1.30pm

These workshops are free, but places are limited so booking is essential via eventbrite.

Please note that one ticket covers one child and one adult.

Ukulele workshops

Always wanted to play the ukulele? Well, now you can! Join Rockjam for ukulele workshops and learn more about this fun and fascinating instrument! You'll learn how to hold the ukulele correctly, learn all about the strings and you'll be able to play along to a short song at the end of the workshop.
