Dún Laoghaire as 1916 Approached, a Social History

7pm Wednesdays 29 June – 31 August
Meeting point: County Hall, Marine Rd Dún Laoghaire

Dún Laoghaire was probably the most desirable place in all of Ireland in the early part of the 20th century. But behind the façades it had some dirty secrets of widespread concealed grinding poverty, disease and deprivation. Before 1916 the town saw major physical changes. This walk will explore 1916 in the area and visit locations in the town.
