

Public Consultation Day

Are you interested in the draft Flood Risk Management Plans for your area?

A public consultation is currently underway seeking public and stakeholder comments and observations on the measures now being proposed as the preferred and feasible measures, to address known significant flood risk for a particular area.

Further details on this consultation, including the date by which comments and observations are required, are available on the OPW website: www.opw.ie/FloodPlans

You are invited to the following consultation event where members of the public can ask questions in relation to the draft Flood Risk Management Plan specific to their particular area.

Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council, County Hall, Marine Road, Dún Laoghaire, Co. Dublin

Tuesday 25th October 2016: 2:00pm – 7:00pm

The areas included in the draft Flood Risk Management Plan are those affected by the Carysfort-Maretimo, Deansgrange and Shanganagh-Carrickmines watercourses (including the Loughlinstown area), and the Old Connaught and Wilford areas.
