Municipal Gallery Exhibition Programme, Level 3

The Municipal Gallery Exhibition & Learning Programmes are managed by dlr Arts Office.

Utopia/ Dystopia
Until 26 January 2020

The biennial open exhibition features a variety of art by artists with a connection to the County and was selected by Aoife Ruane, Director of Highlanes Gallery. The theme is Utopia/Dystopia.

“A utopia is a perfect world. In utopias, there are no problems like war, disease, poverty, oppression, discrimination, inequality etc, while a dystopia, on the other hand, is a world in which nothing is perfect. The problems that plague our world are often even more extreme in dystopias. At this moment in the 21st century and in a complex world of extremes and oppositions what does this mean for artists now…” Aoife Ruane, Highlanes Gallery.

Level 3

Dún Laoghaire, fifty years too early: photography exhibition by Nicolas Reuland
9 Jan—8 Mar 2020
Launch on Thurs 9 Jan, 6.30pm
All welcome
Have you ever noticed how old photographs of street scenes are immediately more interesting? We marvel at how quaint things were, we smile at the clothes people wore, we occasionally laugh at the haircuts or facial hair in vogue at the time. Old street photographs are great. But Nicolas Reuland is quite certain he will not be around in fifty years’ time ... This new exhibition features street scenes of Dún Laoghaire today, all taken within a short radius of dlr LexIcon. He hopes they will convey his love of the place and its people.

What in the World
50 countries 50 stories
16—30 Mar 2020
KMF Productions, Irish Aid and RTÉ present What in the World? The very popular TV series has been presented by Peadar King and filmed in over 50 countries across Africa, Asia and the Americas since 2004. Telling the compelling stories of fifty people, the exhibition features still photographs, quotations from people featured in the documentaries along with a montage of footage from the series. It coincides with the publication of presenter Peadar King’s book War, Suffering and the Struggle for Human Rights which he will discuss with Clare Daly MEP at Mountains to Sea dlr Book Festival on 28th March 2020.
Level 3 (foyer)

Digging up the Raj
26 Feb—31 March 2020
Launch on Wed 26 Feb, 6.30pm
All welcome

Following extensive research at Deansgrange Cemetery, local historian Shabnam Vasish has discovered the remarkable achievements of a wide range of Irish people who lived and worked in India during British rule. There were servicemen who fought in the Indian Mutiny; hard-working civil servants and eminent judges; and missionaries who aimed to convert sun-worshipping heathens to ‘muscular Christianity’. Shabnam’s quest was to bring these extraordinary people to our attention. Having managed to sort out the Maxwell Montagus from the Montagu Maxwells, she has recorded their experiences in this revealing exhibition and book.

The publication and accompanying exhibition are supported with a grant from dlr Heritage Office.

Level 4

A forgotten Polish hero of the Great Irish Famine: Paul Strzelecki’s struggle to save thousands.
6–31 January
This panel exhibition tells the captivating story of Count Paul Edmund Strzelecki, a Polish humanitarian, thanks to whose efforts c. 200,000 children were saved during the Great Irish Famine. As the main agent of the British Relief Association (B.R.A.), Strzelecki developed a visionary and exceptionally effective mode of assistance: feeding starving children directly through the schools. At its peak in 1848, around 200,000 children from all denominations were being fed, many of whom would have otherwise perished from hunger and disease. See www.strzelecki.ie for further information.

An exhibition by the Polish Embassy in Dublin
There will be 3 associated workshops for schools on Monday 13 Jan, 10.00—11.00am, 11.15am—12.15pm & 12.30—1.30pm for 1 class of max 30 per session. For 5th or 6th classes.

Leinster Printmakers and Séamus Heaney
10 Feb—31 Mar 2020
Launch on 10 Feb at 6.30pm
All welcome

In June 2019, The Leinster Printmaking Studio was invited to devise an exhibition especially for the Festival Irlandese in Bassano, Italy. The work of poet Séamus Heaney was selected as theme for the festival. Artist members of the studio and invited guests chose a poem to inspire their work. They produced an eclectic body of work using a variety of traditional processes: etching, drypoint, carborundum, screen-print, linocut and woodcut.
Thirty-one artists created a beautiful exhibition of 43 prints, all equal in size but responding to different poems. dlr Libraries are pleased to welcome Leinster Printmaking Studio back to dlr LexIcon for an exhibition coinciding with the Mountains to Sea dlr Book Festival, a festival much-loved by Séamus Heaney.

Level 5

Jennifer Johnston
25 Jan—31 March 2020

Arising from a generous donation by Jennifer Johnston in 2019, we are delighted to present an exhibition about Jennifer, in partnership with her family to celebrate her 90th birthday in January 2020. Last year Jennifer donated her writing desk and nearly 2,000 of her books to dlr Libraries. Her book collection includes numerous translations of her novels, signed gifts received by many fellow writers, dramatists and artists and a large collection of her own books. Jennifer donated her archive to Trinity College Dublin which also houses the archive of her father Denis Johnston. The LexIcon collection has now been catalogued and this exhibition showcases aspects of the life and work of this remarkable writer.

On Saturday 25 January 2020, to coincide with the launch of the Jennifer Johnston exhibition, a special performance of ‘Waiting’ will be hosted at 2.00pm in the Studio Theatre, dlr LexIcon. Booking essential on Eventbrite.ie.

‘Waiting’ by Jennifer Johnston

Geraldine Plunkett (The Clinic, Fair City, Glenroe etc.) plays Eithne in Jennifer Johnston’s short play Waiting. Eithne’s story takes us through her marriage, her life in London and her longing to return to Glasthule. Beautifully played by Geraldine Plunkett, the show is directed, with her usual consummate skill, by Caroline Fitzgerald.
Writer in Residence
Our Writer in Residence, Sadhbh Devlin has set up a Club Leabhar in dlr LexIcon, a monthly Irish language book club for children aged 8-12yrs, (spaces still available). Since her residency started, Sadhbh has made many visits to dlr library branches for readings, storytime and craft sessions as well as sensory storytimes, including outreach visits to the Homeless Hub in Monsktown.

Look out for Sadhbh’s Zine for Jan–Mar that will list all of her upcoming events. See the Residencies page on our website https://libraries.dlrcoco.ie/dlr-libraries-residencies and our social media channels for updates and crafty videos from Sadhbh.

Some events to look forward to include creative writing workshops, events marking World Book Day and Seachtain na Gaeilge, as well as zine-making workshops for 10-12yr olds. During Spring 2020, Sadhbh will continue working on her new picturebook. Sadhbh will also be involved in our Adopt an Author programme as part of Mountains to Sea dlr Book Festival 2020!

Mountains to Sea dlr Book Festival 2020

Join us from 26th to 29th March 2020 for the 12th M2C Festival!
Our theme in 2020 is ‘The State of Us’. We take stock of where we are and how we’re faring; we celebrate the power of words to stimulate, unite, delight, inspire and at times, agitate.

Through an entertaining programme of conversations, we bring you some of the best-known and loved authors, including, all the way from the USA, Curtis Sittenfeld, Andy Greenberg and James Shapiro. We also welcome Christy Lefteri, author of the Beekeeper of Aleppo, Colum McCann, Anne Enright, Louise Doughty and Niall Williams.

Poetry, as always, plays a starring role at M2C 2020 with visits from Lemn Sissay, Colette Bryce, the Octavia poetry collective, Peggy Seeger and Jackie Kay. We’ll again play host to the Irish Times Poetry Now Award and the Shine Strong Award.

As we head into a US election year with Brexit still occupying time and space, we look at the extremely polarised standpoints in both the US and the UK. We look forward to hearing insights from Fintan O’Toole, Clare Daly MEP and Nikesh Shukla amongst others.

Our schools and children’s programme gets off to a flying start with our Adopt an Author initiative with Shane Hegarty, Patricia Forde, Chris Judge and our own dlr Writer in Residence, Sadhbh Devlin.

Celebrating 30 years of We’re going on a bear hunt, we’re delighted to welcome the legendary Michael Rosen to the Festival!

We’ll have the complete 2020 line-up in our Festival brochure which will be available from mid-January. For more details and booking information, see mountaintosea.ie.
dlr Libraries & Healthy Ireland

Encouraging positive mental health in your teenager with John Sharry

Wed 5 Feb, 6.30–7.30pm
Studio Theatre, Level 1
All welcome

Worry and anxiety are very common problems and many children and teenagers can get caught in worry cycles that can hinder them from getting on with life. In this talk John Sharry will present a strengths-based model for promoting positive mental health, resilience and well-being in older children and teenagers aged 11-18.

Prof. John Sharry is a social worker and family psychotherapist with over 27 years experience as a child and adolescent mental health professional. He is a founder of the Parents Plus Charity, an adjunct Professor at the School of Psychology in UCD and Clinical Director of Silver Cloud Health. He is co-developer of the award-winning Parents Plus Programmes, and the best-selling author of 14 positive psychology and self-help books for families.

Protecting and empowering children in the online world with Cyber Safe Ireland

Wed 12 Feb, 6.30–8pm
Studio Theatre, Level 1
All welcome

This session is targeted towards parents of children aged 8-13yrs and focuses on what’s popular on social media, messaging apps, gaming, the potential risks, guidance and advice. Our aim is not to scare parents, but rather to make them aware of what children are doing online and offer support.

Parenting from the spectrum with Laura Murray

Wed 26 Feb, 6.30–7.30pm
Studio Theatre, Level 1
All welcome

This talk presents a perspective on autism from the inside looking out. Laura uses vivid descriptions and analogies to express her autistic experiences. As a parent on the spectrum, with ADHD and specific learning difficulties, Laura shares her unique approach to parenting neuro divergent children.

It’s Awkward. How to talk to your child about sex with Sarah Sproule

Thurs 27 Feb, 6.30—7.30pm
Studio Theatre, Level 1
All welcome

This presentation with occupational therapist Sarah aims to begin to equip parents and other caring adults to raise young adults to have healthy, supportive and consensual relationships. Attendees will learn why conversations about sex and sexuality are difficult, but why they are still important for families to discuss. Participants will come away with simple first steps to get moving comfortably with this aspect of parenting.
