Dean's Grange Cemetery Archives

Dean's Grange Cemetery was established in 1865 by the Board of Guardians of the Rathdown Union, acting as a Burial Board. The Local Government (Ireland) Act 1898 transferred responsibility for the administration of Dean's Grange from the Board of Guardians to the Urban District Councils of Blackrock, Kingstown and Dalkey and the Rathdown No. 1 Rural District Council. The Killiney/ballybrack Urban District Council acted as a Burial Board for its district but contributed to the cemetery.

On application by these Councils, the Local Government Board made an order creating a united district and a Joint Burial Board in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1878. This was confirmed by the Local Government Board (Ireland) Provisional Order Confirmation (No. 4) Act, 1899. Provision was made for expenses to be defrayed from a fund to be contributed to the the U.D.C.'s and the R.D.C. in proportion to the poor law valuation of their areas. Following the Local Government (Dublin) Act 1930, the Dean's Grange Joint Burial Board (Adoption) Order 1930, declared the United District to be the borough of Dun Laoghaire and the County Health District of Dublin.

The Burial Board records consist largely of minutes, registers of interments and of grave purchases. The collection has not been indexed (1989) as it is still in regular use and the Board operates its own reference system. However, a small number of non-current records, mainly 19th and early 20th century interment receipts, plans and obsolete regulations have been transferred to the Town Hall strong room and assigned provisional reference numbers.
